AGED MAN SENT TO JAIL FOR CONTEMPT

Failure to Pay Alimony Is the Cause of Commit-

William Pike, more than three score years of age, was yesterday committed to the county jail by Judge C. W. Morse in the Third district court for failing to pay alimony to his wife, Johanna C. Pike, in accordance with the order of the court.

The Pike divorce case is now pending in the state supreme court. Pike having appealed from the judgment granted his wife. However, Pike, according to the evidence submitted yesterday and on former occasions when he has been ordered to appear on an order to show cause, has been negligent in paying the $25 a month alimony. Two months ago he was ordered committed to jail, but before he was locked up he arranged to pay the amount then due, $50. An equal amount is now past due and Pike was very indifferent in his answers to Judge Morse vesterday, whereupon he was again sent to jail until he pays the amount of the Emmet W. Bywater, who appeared at the matinee in response to an order to show cause was also ordered committo show cause was also ordered commit-ted to the county jail until he should decide to give his wife. Eva L. By-water, an order for $85 in wages due him. Before Bywater was taken from the courtroom, however, he decided to give the order and the jail sentence was suspended.

Two interlegatory decrees were grant-

Two interlocutory decrees were grant ed by Judge Morse at the regular weekly matinee as follows: Alice K. Gordon from S. D. Gordon and Lucille G. Rebbolz from W. J. Rebbolz.

PREPARES TO PUSH WORK.

Chief Engineer of Utah Railway Company Inspects Preliminary Surveys.

William Ashton, chief engineer for th William Ashton, chief engineer for the Utah Railway company, which is to connect with the big coal fields in Emery county, is there looking over the work being done by the different corps of surveyors. Six different parties have been in the field there all summer and there are several preliminary lines. It is probable that after Mr. Ashton has tooken over the different lines a permanent location will be made and construction work started. The Utah Construction rempany already has material on the ground and will begin work as soon as a line is located.

Railroad Notes.

Directors for the Pacific Express company were elected at a meeting of the stockholders of the company in the office of P. L. Williams, general attorney for the Oregon Short Line, yesterday. The directors are R. S. Lovett, New York; William Sproule, San Francisco; E. O. McCormick, San Francisco; E. E. Calvin, San Francisco, and C. M. Secrist, Chicago.

The double tracking of the Oregon Short Line is reported to be progressing rapidly, the contracts taken by the Utah Construction company being now well under way.

H. H. Hays, passenger agent for the Wylie Permanent Camping company, returned from Denver yesterday forenous and in the afternoon left for Yosemite park, where he will attend a meeting to be held by government officials and transpartation officials. The meeting is to discuss subjects relative to national parks.

The Sait Lake Transportation club has been called to a meeting to be held this evening in the clubrooms in the Hotel Utalu. C. J. McNitt, recently elected president of the club, will announce committee members for the year and will arge that the members of the club outline activities for the winter.

A picture of the Del Monte golf course at Monterey, Cal., has been added to the decorations of the office of J. A. Reeves, general freight agent of the Oregon Short Line.
